4 Story jokes

A young woman walked into a pet store, found a parrot with lovely plumage and asked the owner if she could buy it. The owner said, “Heck no! That parrot has a bad mouth! Trust me—you do not want that parrot!”

The young woman said, “I think I can teach it to be nice.” She bought it from the owner.

However, when she got home, the parrot started squawking all kinds of awful stuff, so she put it in the freezer for 10 seconds.

After the time was up, she took it out and asked, “Will you be nicer?” The parrot belched out a tirade of terrible things, so the young woman put the parrot back in the freezer, but this time for 30 seconds.

After the time was up, she took it out and asked, “Will you be nicer?” The parrot bobbed its head enthusiastically.

cally and said, “Yes! I will be nicer! But please, I got to know. What horrible things did the chickens do?”

A grasshopper walked into a bar and sidled up to the counter. The bartender, who was drying off a glass, took one look at the grasshopper and said, “Hey, we got a drink named after you!”

The grasshopper looked confused. “You have a drink named Steve?”

The visitor said to the farmer, “How are your potatoes turning out?”

The farmer said, “What? They don’t turn out—you gotta dig them out!”

There was a police officer who saw a car going really really slowly down the highway, so the officer pulled the driver over.

The driver rolled down the window and the officer asked, “The speed limit here is 50 miles per hour. Why are you going so slow?”

The driver pointed to a sign ahead that said 24. “It says 24.”

“That’s the name of the highway—not the speed limit.”

“Oh! I didn’t realize.” said the driver.

The driver leaned back and the officer saw a very pale passenger gripping the edge of the seat for dear life.

“What’s wrong with your passenger?”

“Oh, they’ve been that way since 129.”

Two friends are walking down the street and one says to the other, “I’m thirsty. Let’s get a drink.”

So they walk into the nearest deli and straight up to the counter and say, “Hi! We’d like to order two glasses of your best punch please.”

The service person says in a stern voice, “Hey, if you want some punch you’re gonna have to get in line like everybody else.”

The friends turn and look around, but there's no punch line.
